Pastoral Letter

---

I resolved to know nothing among you but Christ and Him crucified. ~ 1 Corinthians 2:2

Dear Zion,

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you!

Recently, a congregation in Lincoln County invited me to meet with its council and advise how it may move forward in its mission. Having lacked a pastor for two years, the leaders were seeking both practical ways to continue the congregation's ministry and a word of hope as they did so.

We discussed many things at that meeting, but the most important message I shared was this: the Church exists for one reason, to publish the saving benefits and mercies of Christ crucified, and the more a congregation centers on this mission and knows itself to be engaged in it, the more of a blessing that church is to its neighbors.

What a blessing to share that word with our brethren in Lincoln County, and what a blessing for me and my brother pastors to serve here, Zion, where you welcome that mission! Yet it's not only a congregation's mission, is it? It's also a personal call for each of us.

What have you resolved to know this week? Is your mind awash with statistics, fear, disgust, and complaint inspired by the 24-hour news cycle? Or has the Word of Christ crucified warmed your soul and secured His throne in your heart?

Imagine a flower that blooms in the dead of night and fills the summer air with spice and glowing light: that's Jesus, blooming in the night of despair when we see Him on His cross, poured out for us. I pray daily for His sweet aroma and brilliant light to fill your homes, and I trust that our God's answer to that prayer is, "Yes!"

Peace!
Pastor Gjerde

Sunday + September 13 + 12 Noon

It's time to give thanks! Christians give thanks in every circumstance, even times of suffering or doubt (1 Thess. 5:18). We receive more blessings daily than we could ever number. So come away from your cares, worries, and distractions, and either join or watch Zion's outdoor process of thanksgiving to our Good Shepherd for His many gifts on Sunday, 9/13, at noon. We will begin in front of the church (Grant Street) and circle through the neighborhood back to the parking lot. Our only purpose: to give God our thanks, praise, and adoration.

August 10: Saint Lawrence

Most likely a native of Spain, St. Lawrence served the Roman churches as a deacon and treasurer. Yet during the rule of Emperor Valerian, the Christian church came under persecution, and it was during this time that authorities ordered Lawrence to turn over the church’s wealth. In response, Lawrence distributed the wealth to the poor, then gathered the poor, sick, and lame and presented them to the authorities, saying that they were the “true riches” of Christ. For this he was killed, burned on a gridiron.

A "Note" from Kantor

Eternal Father, Strong to Save, known throughout the world as the "sailors' hymn," appears as the hymn of the day for August 9. You may wonder, "why." For an answer, look at Matthew 14:22-33 which takes us to the water. The disciples were in a boat, buffeted by waves for most of the night. Jesus was on a mountain far from them. However, during the fourth watch (between 3 am and 6 am), Jesus came to them, walking on the water. The disciples thought it was a ghost and were terrified. However when Jesus identified himself and said "do not be afraid," the disciples believed and realized he was the Son of God.

Job 38, the Old Testament lesson for the day, also speaks of the "seas" and the "foundation of the earth." God answers Job with questions about who made the earth including the seas. It's fascinating to see the connections between the Hymn of the Day and the assigned scripture readings of the day. The hymn, Eternal Father, includes the story of Jesus walking on the water and answers the question about who made all things.

The last phrase is a prayer to our Eternal Father - "Oh, hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the sea." Although the hymn seems to speak specifically to travelers on "land and sea," our perils may not always be "on the water" or "the earth." Our traveling through life encompasses a variety of storms, those that may afflict our body, mind, soul, or spirit. In any of the storms, we know, FOR CERTAIN, who will guide us and tell us, "Take heart; it is I. Do not be afraid."

Looking for a Missing Bible

A white leather-covered Bible was brought to Zion and now is misplaced. The Bible is 8" x 10", has gold-edge pages, and many colored pictures. Written in the Bible are many family names, including Alvin and Lucille Kasten, so it would be easily identified. If you have this Bible, please return it to Zion. Thank you.
